ELECTRICAL SAFETY TIP:

Spring into Safety: Check Outdoor Electrical Equipment!

Tip: Before using electric lawn tools, check for frayed cords to prevent electric shocks.

Reminder: Always use outdoor-rated extension cords for yard work. Indoor cords are not designed to handle moisture and weather exposure.

Check: Ensure outdoor outlets are GFCI (Ground Fault Circuit Interrupter) protected to reduce the risk of electrocution.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE 2025 SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA REMC ANNUAL MEETING

This year, Southeastern Indiana REMC is making a significant change to how we hold our Annual Meeting. In previous years, members gathered in person to hear cooperative updates and vote in the Board of Directors election. For 2025, we are moving to a virtual, on-demand format, giving all members the flexibility to engage with the co-op at their convenience.

Annual Meeting Available Online April 1st

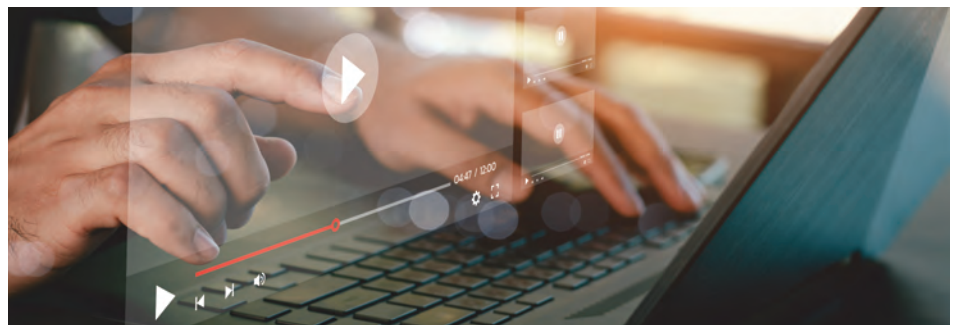

Starting April 1st, members can access all pre-recorded videos and reports on the Annual Meeting page of our website. This new format allows you to stay informed on your own time without needing to attend an in-person event.

The videos will cover:

- Southeastern Indiana REMC's accomplishments over the past year
- Financial reports and operational updates
- Upcoming projects and cooperative initiatives

Meet the Board Candidates Live on Facebook

We understand that member participation is key in choosing cooperative leadership. That's why we're hosting a virtual "Meet the Candidate" event on Facebook Live on March 3rd. This gives members an opportunity to hear directly from the candidates running for the Board of Directors, ask questions, and learn about their priorities.

Your Vote Matters

BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION

As a cooperative, we believe in democratic member control, and all members have the opportunity to vote in the Board of Directors election.

Voting opens April 16th and closes May 15th.

Members can vote online or by mail
- voting details will be shared soon.

Election results will be announced
live on Facebook on May 19th.

WHY THE CHANGE?

The decision to transition to a virtual, on-demand format allows more members to participate in the Annual Meeting by eliminating scheduling conflicts and making information more accessible. Whether you watch on April 1st or later in the month, you'll have the same opportunity to stay informed about your cooperative.

We encourage all members to visit our website on April 1st, tune in for the Meet the Candidate event, and cast their vote for the Board of Directors. Your participation helps shape the future of Southeastern Indiana REMC!
